

Members of The Historic and Cultural Advisory Council

Marilyn Ross, Twin Bridges - Ross is the Chair of the Butte Public Archives and has been working to preserve the rich history of the Butte area for the past 20 years.

Wendy Raney, Wolf Creek - Raney is the Director of Field Operations for the Lewis & Clark Trail Heritage Foundation, an organization founded in 1969 to preserve the story of the Lewis and Clark Expedition and the route it traveled.

Lynda Moss, Billings - Senator Moss, when not serving the people of Senate District 26, serves as Executive Director of the Foundation for Community Vitality, a supporting organization of the Montana Community Foundation.

Bob McCarthy, Butte - McCarthy currently serves as Silver Bow County Attorney in Butte and is a longtime member of the Butte Historical Society.

Chris King, Winnett - King is a County Commissioner in Petroleum County. He served two terms on the State Historic Preservation Review Board.

Randy Hafer, Billings - Hafer is an architect with High Plains Architects, P.C. and is President of the Billings Architectural Association and Vice President of the Western Heritage Center Board.

John Bohlinger, Helena - Lieutenant Governor Bohlinger will, by Executive Order, serve as Chair of the Council. Prior to being elected Montana's Lieutenant Governor, he served in both the Montana Senate and House representing districts in Billings.